Recipes for freshness and first class quality

We refine choice olives, tomatoes, hot peppers and much more to an exceptional blend of Mediterranean baking ingredients. All products are prepared fresh daily.

They are strictly crafted according to HACCP policies.

The continuous demand for new baking raw materials is the key to our company's success. As well as developing new ideas, we craft these into extraordinary products.

As a German gourmet company, we cultivated and maintain solid and excellent relationships with premium suppliers. Thus we can deliver consistently high quality and respond flexibly to customer wishes.

Because every phase of business is perfectly executed, we have become one of the premiere suppliers in the competitive bakery industry. Our wide range of flavors is constantly developed to ensure pleasure.

Customer satisfaction is our „main ingredient“

Fresh ideas for baking mixes with olives, pepperoni, tomato, etc. as well as the in-house refinement of special ingredients are the basis of our daily business. We offer highest-quality Mediterranean herbs and spices in our mixes at reasonable prices. Along with reliable advice and fast delivery.

We use the best raw materials from Spain, Greece, Turkey and Germany. Size, color, consistency, maturity, storage period or the type of transport - are some of the strict criteria we use to test and select our ingredients. We process only the highest grade.

The strictest international food standards are fully guaranteed by Koch Feinkost during all stages from purchasing to processing to delivery.
